

THIRD ANNUAL diversity SYMPOSIUM

NIC DIVERSITY THEME 2016-2018

EXPLORING RACE AND ETHNICITY

APRIL 17

EDMINSTER
STUDENT UNION BUILDING

- 10:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. FINE ARTS DISPLAY from NIC art students based on the U.N. Declaration of Human Rights.
Driftwood Bay
- 10:30 - 11:45 a.m. PEACE STUDIES/COMMUNICATION EVENT
Lake Coeur d'Alene Room
- 12:15 - 12:45 p.m. INTERACTIVE JUSTICE CHOIR with Max Mendez and the Chamber Singers.
Silver Beach Gallery – Second level
- Noon - 4 p.m. DISPLAYS from student ASNIC groups, Common Read, library, etc.
Driftwood Bay, Plaza, Silver Beach Gallery, and Lake Coeur d'Alene Room.
- 1 - 2:15 p.m. ROUNDTABLE SESSIONS ON "BANISHING BIAS" Speakers include Lezlee Ware (Social Psych), Osaze Ogbeide (Student), Victor Begay (American Indian Studies Instructor), Alex Jimenez (Student), Geoff Carr (Mass Media/Journalism Instructor)
Lake Coeur d'Alene Room
- 2:30 - 3:45 p.m. MICKEY MOUSE MONOPOLY with Heather Erikson (programming on how Disney, beloved as it may be, creates class and bias that are social constructs).
Lake Coeur d'Alene Room
- 6:30 - 8 p.m. SYMPOSIUM PANEL "PEACEFUL PROGRESS IN HUMAN RIGHTS" with Keynote Speaker Tony Stewart. Panel members include:
Tony Stewart, Board Member of Kootenai County Task Force for Human Relations, Co-founder of Human Rights Education Institute, former NIC Political Science Instructor, Human Rights Activist
Lita Burns, NIC Vice President for Instruction, HREI Board Member
Phillip Tyler, Former President NAACP, Board of Directors Spokane County Human Rights Task Force, President of Wisdom in Words Consulting Services
Elva Allan, Owner of Advanced Management Strategies: Management consulting in the areas of education, early childhood, and Tribal and Hispanic issues.
Lake Coeur d'Alene Room

Please contact Laura Templeman at laura.templeman@nic.edu or Jo Lien at josann.lien@nic.edu.

ALL EVENTS
ARE FREE

North Idaho College