

Human Rights Education Institute

The mission of HREI is to celebrate diversity and human rights by educating, raising awareness, and recognizing the value of all humanity.

The Human Rights Education Institute is a rich resource for our community. We are recognized as a center providing cultural education, raising awareness of critical human rights issues and honoring differences while working toward common goals. Our programs and community development strategies are a global model for meaningful change through human rights education.

This program is provided through a grant from the Gladys E. Langroise Advised Fund and Herbert D. McAvoy Fund in the Idaho Community Foundation.

YOU asked for it!

We've got it. The 2018 Regional Teen Human Rights Symposium will provide a full -day of human rights education to secondary students ages 13-19 (some exceptions made) and interested in deepening their understanding of human rights history and humanitarian issues today.

The Program has three primary goals: Develop students' understanding of the complexities of history, empower students to be leaders in their communities who support human rights and genocide prevention, and to provide examples of past and current role models who have made a difference in their communities and the world.

This Teen Human Rights Symposium will reduce hatred and open dialog for more compassionate youth and young adult citizenship. Students will have a better understanding of human rights, will gain confidence to speak out against bullying and hateful actions, and can infuse an open acceptance of culture and diversity in their communities. We expect students will become more compassionate human beings and develop and share more meaningful relationships on school campuses and in the world around them.

Let your voice be heard and create an action plan for your school.

Cost

$ 25 per student includes full day symposium, lunch, t-shirt, swag bag and participation packet with helpful tools and resources to bring back to your school. Registration Form is available at www.HREI.org

Some scholarships available—please call HREI at 208-292-2359 for more information

Unity Day & Concert—Save the Date

Wear ORANGE and make it end! HREI will be hosting a community concert with inspiring music and performances following the 2018 Unity Day Celebration to bring awareness to bullying prevention and to support action that unifies our communities. What are your true colors when it comes to bullying? If you care about safe and supportive schools and communities, make your color ORANGE on Unity Day October 24, 2018. That's the day everyone can come together – in schools, communities, and online – and send one large ORANGE message of support, hope, and unity to show that we are together against bullying and united for kindness, acceptance and inclusion.
